UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YOR	K

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

Proposed Corder of Restitution

ELLIOT SMERLING.

S1 21 Cr. 317 (DLC)

Defendant.

Upon the application of the United States of America, by its attorney, Damian Williams, United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, Jilan J. Kamal, Assistant United States Attorney, of counsel; the presentence report; the Defendant's conviction on Counts One and Two of the above Superseding Information; and all other proceedings in this case, it is hereby ORDERED that:

1. Amount of Restitution

¹Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(j)(2)(A), the amount of restitution paid to any victim under an order of restitution "shall be reduced by any amount later recovered as compensatory damages for the same loss by the victim in . . . any Federal civil proceeding." The victims here have obtained a consolidated civil judgment against the defendant in the Southern District of New York and a receiver has been appointed to facilitate the identification, collection, and preservation of the assets of the defendant and his affiliated entities for the benefit of the victims. See In re Smerling Litigation, 21 Civ. 2552 (JPC), ECF No. 98. Accordingly, the victims' civil recovery must be credited against any recovery under this Order.

A. Joint and Several Liability

At this time, restitution is not joint and several with other defendants or with others not named herein.

B. Apportionment Among Victims

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(i), all nonfederal victims must be paid before the United States is paid. Restitution shall be paid to the victims identified in the Schedule of Victims, attached hereto as Schedule A, on a pro rata basis, whereby each payment shall be distributed proportionally to each victim based upon the amount of loss for each victim, as set forth more fully in Schedule A.

2. Schedule of Payments

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(f)(2), in consideration of the financial resources and other assets of the Defendant, including whether any of these assets are jointly controlled; projected earnings and other income of the Defendant; and any financial obligations of the Defendant; including obligations to dependents, the Defendant shall pay restitution in the manner and according to the schedule that follows:

In the interest of justice, restitution shall be payable in installments pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3572(d)(1) and (2). The Defendant shall commence monthly installment payments of an amount at least or no less than 20% percent of the Defendant's gross income, payable on the 15th of each month, immediately upon entry of this judgment.

3. Payment Instructions

The Defendant shall make restitution payments by certified check, bank check, money order, wire transfer, credit card or cash. Checks and money orders shall be made payable to the "SDNY Clerk of the Court" and mailed or hand-delivered to: United States Courthouse, 500 Pearl Street, New York, New York 10007 - Attention: Cashier, as required by 18 U.S.C. § 3611. The Defendant shall write his/her name and the docket number of this case on each check or money order. Credit card payments must be made in person at the Clerk's Office. Any cash payments shall be hand delivered to the Clerk's Office using exact change and shall not be mailed. For payments by wire, the Defendant shall contact the Clerk's Office for wiring instructions.

4. Additional Provisions

The Defendant shall notify, within 30 days, the Clerk of Court, the United States Probation Office (during any period of probation or supervised release), and the United States Attorney's Office, 86 Chambers Street, 3rd Floor, New York, New York 10007 (Attn: Financial Litigation Unit) of (1) any change of the Defendant's name, residence, or mailing address or (2) any material change in the Defendant's financial resources that affects the Defendant's ability to pay restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3664(k). If the Defendant discloses, or the Government otherwise learns of, additional assets not known to the Government at the time of the execution of this order, the Government may seek a Court order modifying the payment schedule consistent with the discovery of new or additional assets.

5. Restitution Liability

The Defendant's liability to pay restitution shall terminate on the date that is the later of 20 years from the entry of judgment or 20 years after the Defendant's release from imprisonment, as provided in 18 U.S.C. § 3613(b). Subject to the time limitations in the preceding sentence, in the event of the death of the Defendant, the Defendant's estate will be held responsible for any unpaid balance of the restitution amount, and any lien filed pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3613(c) shall continue until the estate receives a written release of that liability.
